ANTHRACITE COAL ART OF CHARLES EDGAR PATIENCE

$25.50

Described in EBONY (March 1970) as "one of the nation's most unusual sculptors," the author's father is well known in northeastern Pennsylvania. With the opening of the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, D.C. (September 2016) where his work will be displayed, he will become known in additional regions.

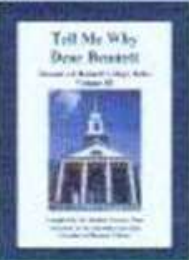

TELL ME WHY DEAR BENNETT: MEMOIRS OF BENNETT BELLES Volume I $39.00

The first volume of this trilogy introduces readers to alumnae whose stories span more than a century. Bennett College's fascinating "her-story" mirrors the history of this country with many "firsts" in both racial and gender arenas.

TELL ME WHY DEAR BENNETT: MEMOIRS OF BENNETT BELLES Volume II $33.00

Categorized by decades, alumnae provide personal insights into the struggles of African Americans during Reconstruction, "Jim Crow," the Civil Rights Movement, and the "Black Lives Matter" awakening described in Volume III.

TELL ME WHY DEAR BENNETT: MEMOIRS OF BENNETT BELLES Volume III $35.00

Besides personal anecdotes, this final volume includes a number of "In Memoriam" and tributes. Recognized are Bennett College presidents, instructors, mentors, family, classmates, friends, and others who through the decades have impacted the lives of Bennett Belles.
